

Job Growth Issues

Two very different issues confront the state.

1. Some of the fastest growing occupations require at least 14 years of education such as registered nurses, computer engineers and systems analysts.
2. The greatest increase in actual job openings is in work that pays lower wages and demands less education and training such as cashiers and retail sales.

